

I strongly oppose allowing the use of cell phones aboard aircrafts. The annoyance this will cause will be unbearable in such close spaces. Individuals' privacy, particularly with cell phones with photographic capabilities, will be compromised. I urge you to follow the trend of many commercial operations and ensure that cell phones are silenced in the air.